POOR CHARLIE SAYS!

We make the prediction now that if the figures show that Ford out sells Chevrolet in the second three months of the year as they did the first three, there'll be some changes made. Chevrolet will bring its advertising back to the newspapers in the same sizes and number of insertions that they did in 1967 and 1968. They will also put the dealers name back in the ads.

They will forget all about trying to make regional dealers instead of community dealers.

PROOF OF TREACHERY

One of our contemporaries, Editor Ed Schergens of the TELL CITY (Indiana) NEWS, after hearing a British speaker tell an American audience a thing or two, went back to his typewriter to pass on a few thoughts to his readers. We believe they are worth pondering by our readers, too.

Many Americans act like the ostrich. They think because they cannot see a threat, one does not exist. Yorick Blumenfeld, a British journalist, did what he could to point out a danger most of us do not recognize. He said, "The whole atmosphere of America is one of hope." Then he emphasized, "but there is little to hope with the present Soviet regime."

The Englishman was speaking in Indiana on a visit to our state capital when he issued his warnings. He said Americans are unwilling to admit or recognize that the Soviets break commitments with everybody, friend and foe alike.

"The Soviet attitude of treachery has been proven time and again," said Mr. Blumenfeld. "The Reds proved it by the Czech invasion, which was a breach of the Warsaw Pact of 1954. Americans seem not to be aware that Hungary, Poland and East Germany, as well as Czechoslovakia, are occupied by the Red army. And this is 14 years after the Hungarian revolution."

It is too bad this Englishman has to come among us and point out that "Americans are foolish to believe the Soviets will sign and honor treaties." We should be able to recognize the threat.

It is natural in our nation to hope. But we should never be foolish enough to let our hopes take over in place of being alert. Not only should we recognize the unfaithfulness of the Communists, we should remain strong enough to repulse any move they would make against our society.

Honoring a word, either written or spoken, is not a Red quality. In all of our dealings with the Soviet Union we should never forget these facts.

Saturday is Veterans Day. We well remember the first Armistice Day, the name of which has now been changed. It was at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 that World War I came to an end and there was world-wide rejoicing. Fortunately for us we did not reach the combat zone in France. Foolishly we and most everyone else, thought there would never be any more wars. Somewhere in the Bible we have read there will always be wars and rumors of wars, and undoubtedly it is right. But it will be a real Thanksgiving day when our present conflict in Vietnam comes to an end, to be listed with others as a reminder of what war brings to us in its many costs.

MINORITY HIRING PRACTICES

The federal government has pressured contractors and construction unions in a score of large cities to open up more jobs for blacks, Puerto Ricans, and other minority-group members. Oddly, though, the Washington, D.C., area construction industry has escaped any federal arm-twisting. Or it has until now. The Labor Department plans to hold two days of hearings, starting Monday, April 13, on minority hiring practices of contractors performing federal construction projects in the national capital area.

Labor Secretary George P. Shultz was pointed out that the hearings "are especially significant" in view of "the vast amount of federal funds spent for construction" in metropolitan Washington. Federal agencies expand not only into buildings built especially for them but also into those put up with private financing. Moreover, work on the $2.5 billion Washington subway, a project that will take years to complete, is just beginning. Local black leaders have been demanding for months that a substantial number of subway construction jobs be given to Negroes.

The Nixon administration prefers that the issue of minority hiring practices in the construction field be settled by voluntary agreement, but it has not hesitated to twist arms. An example of the latter approach is the Philadelphia Plan, ordered into effect by Shultz in September 1969. The plan set forth specific hiring "goals" for contractors performing federally assisted construction work in the Philadelphia area.

Girls should realize that chasing men is regarded with disfavor in any community, and that they are not respected. They should note that the popular girls are modest and discreet. Nearly everyone becomes disgusted with girls who chase men.

An old man who marries a young woman in order that she can take care of him, really needs a guardian instead of a wife.

ENTERTAINING --NIXON STYLE

The word around Washington is that Richard and Pat Nixon do not like parties. According to the New York Times Magazine ("Washington Society Isn't Exactly Swinging," March 8, 1970), they much prefer "bowling or watching TV." And because the President and his wife set the style for everyone else in town, many Washington socialites who have never expressed much interest in bowling or television are out of sorts. Even former critics are nostalgic for the excitement of the Kennedy soirees or the ebullience of Lyndon B. Johnson's extravaganzas.

It is hardly surprising that the Nixon's intention to entertain the Duke and Duchess of Windsor on Saturday, April 4, has revived Washington's social set. White House Social Secretary Lucy Winchester has been deluged with requests for invitations to the dinner. It will mark the Duke's first visit to the White House since his January 1955 courtesy call on President Eisenhower. The Wall Street Journal, seldom known for exaggeration, called (March 20, 1970) the event "the social highlight of the White House season." According to Betty Beale of the Washington Star (March 8, 1970), the invitation is in return for a 1963 dinner given by the Duke and Duchess for the Nixon family in France. The Windsors described it as the most enjoyable evening they had ever spent.

Despite grumblings about the Nixon social style, an invitation to the White House—whether it be for jazz musician Duke Ellington, British actor Nicol Williamson or for one of evangelist Billy Graham's Sunday morning religious services—is always the most coveted invitation in town. It is also one of the most formal. The President insists on white ties and tails at State Dinners. Conversations are usually subdued and unprovocative. The music is most often classical. And Henry Kissinger, the President's foreign policy advisor, provides the "swing." The Nixons generally retire to their upstairs quarters by 11 p.m., and the guests leave soon afterward. For the Windsors, though, the President may stop the clock.

James T. Ownby, founder of International Association of Characters, Inc., Auburn, Ala., passes along this one:

"Remember the days when a capsule traveled inside a man?"

Every girl wants the young man she goes with to be an artist at making love, but after they are married she becomes more interested in his ability to make money.

The Colonel said: "It is a remarkable crowd of children who can play 20 minutes without quarreling over who is 'it.'"

Compensation. In Woonsocket, R.I., the judge dismissed charges that Bernard Halacy, 22-year-old veteran, had stolen a city-street sweeping vehicle, when Halacy explained that he had always wanted to drive a tank in the Army, but never had the chance.

When a man is 30 years old he is apt to envy the man who is rich, but at 50 he is more likely to envy the man who has good health.

Melford Taylor says: "Some people are like a television set for a western town—lots of front, nothing upstairs."

You may be old and grouchy but you probably have as much fun as a country dog when it comes to town.

The man who butts into a family row has a large bump of good judgment compared with the baseball player who starts a fight with the umpire.

An editor friend writes us that "I get tired of hearing what a rich nation we are when right in our own community we have areas without sanitary sewers, impassable streets, struggling schools, great cities decaying and on the verge of bankruptcy, many fellow citizens struggling on a hand-to-mouth existence and some not even that well off. Citizens are not tax stingy. It's simply that prime tax money goes to Washington where bureaucracies have money to burn while local needs go from bad to worse."

NEW YORK (AP) — William Wyler still takes a wistful pride in the $60-a-month disability payment he gets from Uncle Sam for damage to his right ear while filming high altitude scenes as a combat photographer during World War II.

"It's a shame that only war and common danger bring out the best in men," he said. But at 67 Wyler, a landmark Hollywood director and Academy Award nominee, is still trying himself to bring out the best in men.

"It is my philosophy that a man should stand up for something," he said. "I like to make entertaining pictures, but I also get great satisfaction out of making a film that hopefully can contribute something to the improvement of our society."

Right now he is hopeful that his latest film, "The Liberation of B. Jones," a drama of lust and revenge, will help the plight of the Negro in the south.

A careful craftsman who takes two years or more to complete a picture, Wyler has been remarkably successful in turning out films that ring the cash register whether they are pure entertainments or also carry a message.

The director came to this country at the age of 18 from his native Alsace and started as a film native clerk at $20 a week. By 1925 he was earning $60 a week turning out two-reel westerns budgeted at $2,000 each.

His work since then has won him 13 personal Academy Award nominations and three Oscars. They were for directing "Mrs. Miniver," "The Best Years of Our Lives," and "Ben-Hur." He has also won critical acclaim for such other films as "Wuthering Heights," "The Little Foxes," "Roman Holiday," "Detective Story," and "Funny Girl."

What are the chief requirements of directing? "I'd say they are a knowledge of your craft and a passion for your subject," replied Wyler. "You have to have both. One alone is not enough."

"And that's a big problem. It isn't always easy to find a story or a subject that stirs a passion in you."

And what are the rewards of directing? "Well, it is fascinating because there are no two days alike," he said. "And when you do something good, the rewards are tremendous."

"People remember what you've done for 20 years or more. That's very gratifying, when you consider that so many millions of people who do good work every day in other fields get only a slap in the back."

The Missouri Highway Patrol reported today that there was a 17 per cent decrease in the number of traffic deaths during the first quarter of this year as compared to the same period on 1969.

Records of the Patrol's Traffic Division show that 257 persons lost their lives in Missouri traffic during the first three months of this year. From January 1, through March 31 of 1969, 308 traffic fatalities were recorded in the State.

A study of the two comparable three-month periods by the Traffic Division revealed that there was a decrease in the number of rural and urban deaths.

MISGUIDED INDIVIDUALISTS Violent dissenters keep talking about their war on "the establishment." Presumably, they mean the U.S. political and economic system with its guarantees of free speech under the Constitution. In the same breath, they profess to support a creed of untrammelled individualism, in personal appearance, as well as in moral, religious and political beliefs.

Since their respect for the law is nil, it is unlikely that many of the violent dissenters noted a news release reporting that, "In three separate decisions... individual liberties were pitted against the powers of the state or private corporations. In each case the Supreme Court ruled in favor of the individuals..."

The cases had to do with depriving one individual of his property without the processes guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment of the U. S. Constitution. Two other cases dealt with the right of free speech under the First Amendment of the Constitution. And so it goes every day of the year.

The law goes quietly about the business of protecting persons and property, even of the dissenters who would destroy it — dissenters who "individualism" would land them before a firing squad in any society ruled by passionate men rather than dispassionate laws.

HIGHEST CASH BUNDLE: Building Unions Demand $240 Pay Raise Per Man Per Week!

Kansas City, Mo. — Everything still is up to date in Kansas City — but they're hardly gone as far as they can go.

On April 1st a handful of unions proved they weren't fooling. Like the furious blizzard they roared out of nowhere with a demand for a package increase of $6 an hour — or $240 hike per man per 40-hour week. That's some of them wound up by a contract. They didn't raise their voices over the howl of the storm. Leaders of five unions, — three of them from the Laborers International, one from the Lathers and another from the Cement Finishers — simply told their people they were on strike.

They did have a compassionate moment. At the last minute they shaved down the "request" by cutting it to $5.50 — an hour hike or $220 a week per man increase.

This would bring their scale up to more than $10 an hour. And in some cases $13 and more.

And so at lunch the other day, one of the city's civic leaders, true as earnest as he is dynamic, was justifiably doleful when he predicted that in a "mighty few years," the construction rate in this river city will run toward $20 an hour per man. This would mean $800 a week per construction worker in the skilled or tightly held trades. That $800 pay would be before overtime. At that rate who needs a masters' degree or a doctorate? Hand me my hammer. In New York City some sheet metal workers are getting $10.45. This is cash. Fringes are on top.

You see, no city in the world has as high a per capita construction program now under way as we have," said the community leader. "We've $3 billion in backlog building. We're working on our new International Airport, the fantastic Harry S. Truman Sports Complex which will have two stadiums alongside each other, the 40,000-seat baseball structure and the football field which will be able to seat 75,000 people. The diamond should be open by '72 and the gridiron by '71. But who knows what will happen at this rate?"

There are plans for a vast 10-block redevelopment, a $43-million medical center, hotels and a posh Plaza "central," as he put it.

There simply is too much work. The men can go where they want in or out of town. There's just no unemployment in this area or anywhere else, for that matter, except among some operating engineers in California and some road-building unionists in the Montana-Idaho sector.

So this city gets whipsawed. Virtually no one but the specialists watch the phenomenon. Each year hundreds of millions of dollars are tied up. Last April 1st was no fooling matter either. The iron workers struck — and stayed out for 122 days. In the end, some of them wound up by a $156 — a week increase over a three-year contract. And the "rodders" got $162 dollars more in their package. Beginning April 1, 1971, the structural steel workers will receive $9.05 an hour.

And then there were the glaziers who won a fabulous package which still needs a final accounting to reach a quotable figure — but they now get about $7 an hour.

This year it is the turn of the Laborers Local 264, Laborers Local 1290, Mason and Plaster Tenders Union Local 555, the Cement Finishers Union Local 618 and Lathers Union Local 27.

Of course, you've never heard of them unless you have an up-to-date cousin in Kansas City. But other building and construction union leaders have- and are watching. So are the contractors. So is the Labor Department.

And, it can be authentically reported, so is President Nixon.

The construction boom heartwarming and harnessing him. Construction means jobs — and the beginning of openings for black workers. But the boom and the scarcity of labor means unbelievable inflation. In mid-January the president knew that this year would see 750 building and construction union contracts expire. These pacts cover one million craftsmen involved in $10-billion worth of building schedules.

This will be the year of the leap frog. In '69, the iron workers hit hard and got their bundle. This became the precedent, the base, the "look at what they got" argument. This year, the laborers and the others will reach for a big piece of the action in their new three-year contract. Soon enough the iron workers will be around again.

The word flashes to every local and its rank and file involved in those 750 contracts. And around and around we go. And so do they, pricing themselves out of the market. Men may not live by bread alone. But they can live without stadiums and posh plazas.

Deer Horns Not Aphrodisiac, But One Kind May Achieve Results

Dear Ann Landers: I was interested in your reply to the Michigan reader who asked about the effectiveness of powdered deer horns as an aphrodisiac. You advised him to try fog horns, bass horns, shoe horns, pointing out that the results would be the same—zero.

May I tell you about a horn that really works? And you don't have to go to the trouble of powdering it. I refer to the Rolls Royce horn. No woman can resist it. It turns them on every time!—Lansing Lover.

Dear Lover: By the time most guys get to the point in life where they can afford a Rolls Royce, nothing else works. Thanks for the suggestion.

Dear Ann Landers: I got out of prison last July after five terrible years. It seemed like one hundred. Some of my friends kept in touch with me but my wife and two daughters did not. I wrote them seven letters and didn't get an answer. Then I wrote to my brother and asked him to find out if my wife and girls received my letters. Within a week I got an answer. My wife and daughters didn't want to have anything more to do with me. One month later my wife sued me for divorce.

Yesterday I received a letter from my oldest daughter. She is being married in June and wants me to give her away at the wedding. I think they only want me there for appearances. Oh yes, I ought to tell you I've made a nice comeback and have a good job and a bright future. What should I do?—Deeply Hurt.

Dear D.H.: A man with your background should know the importance of building bridges instead of walls. Your family has extended a hand of friendship. Accept it.

Dear Ann Landers: Do you have a solution to a problem that irritates me to the point that I actually feel my blood pressure go up? I am referring to people who are forever bumming cigarettes. Thank you very much. I Buy Mine

Dear I: Have an extra full pack handy and sell it to the chiseler.

Dear Ann Landers: Here's a message from a dirty old man—age 22. I'm a college senior and the point of view I express here reflects the thinking of a lot of guys.

There is nothing so ludicrous as a chick in a thigh-high mini, sitting on a chair or sofa, tugging at her skirt, trying to pull it down to cover her status of respectability. She blushes ten shades of red and asks with eyes big as saucers, "Am I sitting all right?" or, "Is anything showing?"

If they don't want anything to show why don't they buy a skirt with some material in it?

Keglers' Korner

Hello! Another busy week has past and they will all be pretty hectic until the end of this bowling season. One League has already finished.

Thursday night the City Association held its annual meeting with the presentation of awards from the Tournament held two weeks ago, and election of officers for the next year was held. Mary Reyer, president, Mildred Pool vice-president, Billie Garner secretary, Thelma Hampton treasurer, and Linda Gipeon Sargent-at-arms.

There was a pretty good turnout for the meeting but not as many as we would like to have. There were 34 members present and with a membership of 346 we surely could do better than that. It sorta reminds me of church attendance.

A Nixon and Eisenhower graced the Washington rooting section. Ted Williams barked encouragement from the dugout and a micro-skirted cutie hugged Frank Howard at home plate.

With that kind of support, how could the Senators miss?

Detroit's Mickey Lolich had the answer, but he was keeping it a secret Monday after taming the Senators 5-0 in the American League's traditional season opener to the dismay of late-arriving President Nixon, first-ball pitcher David Eisenhower, the curvy Howard-hugger and a chilled Washington crowd of 42,015.

"I worked on a new pitch and I threw it a lot today," said the Tigers' stocky left-hander, who scattered seven hits and struck out 10 in a rain-delayed, three-hour and 43-minute marathon. "I called it the classified pitch."

Pressed for elaboration, he said: "I refuse to answer on the grounds the hitters may incriminate me."

While Lolich, subbing for suspended Tiger ace Denny McLain, was pinning Washington with its eighth straight opening day loss, Cincinnati gave new Manager Sparky Anderson a solid sendoff by trimming Montreal 5-1, behind southpaw Jim Merritt's three-hitter in the National League opener.

"I just sat on the bench and enjoyed a nice relaxed time," Anderson said after watching Merritt hold the Expos hitless for 6 1-3 innings and the Red's Lee May, Bob Tolan and rookie Bernie Carbo rock Montreal's Joe Spina for fourth-inning home runs.

All the other clubs were set to play today, with the exception of the St. Louis Cardinals, who open Wednesday at Montreal.

Tom Seaver got the starting call for the world champion New York Mets at Pittsburgh against the Pirates' Steve Blass.

Baltimore's American League defenders opened at Cleveland, with Dave McNally pitching against the Indians' Sudden Sam McDowell.

The Chicago Cubs were at Philadelphia, Atlanta at San Diego, Houston at San Francisco and Cincinnati at Los Angeles in other NL action.

Milwaukee's new American league club, nee the Seattle Pilots, entertained California while Oakland was at Kansas City, Minnesota at the Chicago White Sox, Boston at the New York Yankees and Detroit at Washington.

With Nixon detained at the White House because of a key Senate vote on the Supreme Court nomination of Judge G. Harrold Carswell and Vice President Agnew also unavailable, young Eisenhower was assigned to throw out the first ball.

After a 55-minute rain delay the President's son-in-law flipped a bloop from his box seat to the first base line, where Senators' outfielder Hank Allen made the catch. Allen also caught Nixon's first toss a year ago.

When Howard came to bat at the bottom of the first, Morgana Roberts, an exotic dancer, bolted from the stands and embraced the towering Washington slugger. She had made a similar unscheduled foray last summer at Atlanta, planting a kiss on the Braves' Cleve Boyer as he went to the plate.

Thus fortified, Howard grounded out. He and Ed Brinkman divided six of the Senators hits, but by the time Nixon arrived in the fifth inning, Lolich still was ahead 2-0.

At Cincinnati, a crowd of 30,124 saw Merritt stop the Expos cold until Rusty Staub tripled with one out in the seventh. Ron Fairly followed with a run-scoring single but Merritt allowed only one more the rest of the way.

Sikeston's baseball debut was spoiled by the surprising Lilbourn Panthers as they came up with four runs in the last inning to take the game 5-4. Both teams showed early season nervousness as many mistakes marred the game. Five errors were committed by the Sikeston nine in their bid for victory.

Don Miller was the hurler for the Bulldogs as he went all the way allowing six hits and five runs. Miller held down the tough hitting Panthers until the fifth inning as three walks paved the way. But after this he shined to put down the threat with two strikeouts.

At the offensive end of the game, senior Les Schatzley led the team as he got on base safely at every bat. The starting third baseman hit two singles and drew two walks.

Mike Dambach and Cary Prince teamed for the win as they shared the pitching chores for the Panthers. Dambach started the game and pitched for six innings allowing three hits and four runs. Prince came on in the seventh to finish as the Bulldogs attempted in vain to come up with the win.

The first run of the game was scored in the second inning as Dave Dollar came across the plate to put the Bulldogs ahead. Dollar then scored the second run for the Dogs as this put them out in front, 2-0.

Lilbourn then came on in the fifth to score one run as three walks were issued by Miller. An error in the bottom of the fifth aided a Sikeston run as Schatzley knocked in Dye.

Phil Hillis led off the sixth with a hit but was called out as he left the base too early on a sacrifice fly which put down another Lilbourn threat.

The seventh inning was full of excitement, errors, and

Luncheon Held Despite Loss Of Pilots

SEATTLE AP — The second-annual Seattle Pilots' Welcome Luncheon went off without a hitch here Monday, although the team was in Milwaukee.

Cary Prince as he hit a single to force in the first Panther run. The next batter also hit a first-bagger and hit in two runs as a throwing error aided. The Lilbourn fourth run of the inning was also scored on a throwing error as the Panthers took the lead 5-4. Sikeston came to bat to face a home pitcher with Sorrells and Schatzley leading off with hits, but the next three batters were unable to hit.

Lilbourn took the game with Dambach receiving the win on seven strikeouts. Cary Prince led the Panthers at the plate as he went three for four and helped also at the mound pitching the last inning.

Sikeston will now take on Chaffee in a home game Thursday afternoon with starting time at 4pm.

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP) — Those great-name trains of America, such as the 20th Century Limited, Golden State and Chief have not passed completely into oblivion.

Scale models of these famous flyers are making more and more runs every year — across the basements and attics of America.

A model railroading magazine estimates that 150,000 Americans engage in the hobby, spend more than $41 million annually and keep a bit of Americana alive at the same time.

The average hobbyist today is 33.2 years old, indicating the age level has remained constant for the past 20 years.

WOULDN'T SIGN
EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Of 199 persons approached in Corpus Christi, Tex., recently, only 18 could correctly identify a document as a replica of the Bill of Rights.

More than half of the people approached on the street in an experiment by the Corpus Christi Caller-Times refused to sign a replica of the Bill of Rights.

Norman Isaacs, Louisville, Ky., Courier-Journal executive editor told of the experiment to a recent convention of the Texas Daily Newspaper Association.

Isaacs said 56 persons signed the petition although more than a third of these didn't bother to read it. Of the 143 who declined, Isaacs said 54 per cent read and refused to sign the petition. The others wouldn't read or wouldn't sign, he said.

Police Report Minor Car Crash Triggered Patrol Slaying Siege

SAUGUS, Calif. (AP) — Police said today a minor car collision led to 12 hours of gunfire which left four highway patrolmen and another man shot to death.

Recovering in a hospital from a pistol wound in the chest was a 28-year-old man identified by police as one of the two principals in the lengthy shootout. The second man was dead, of an apparently self-inflicted shotgun blast in the head.

The wounded man was booked for investigation of murder under the name Russell Lowell Talbert, 28, of Winston-Salem, N.C., the name on identification papers he had on his person.

Winston-Salem police said, however, that a man of the same name in that city had reported his identification papers stolen in a burglary at his home. The FBI was asked to check the wounded man's fingerprints.

The police reconstruction of the events which ended with five men dead went like this:

Two officers in a Highway Patrol car received a complaint from a motorist that two men in a car pointed a shotgun at him after a collision on Interstate 5 Freeway about 35 miles north of Los Angeles.

The patrol car chased the two men and spotted their car parked outside a coffee shop here. The occupants of the car shot them down.

Another patrol car pulled up and also came under fire. One of the two officers in this car was killed immediately. His partner held off the gunmen for five minutes before falling mortally wounded.

The two men fled in their car but abandoned it when the tires went flat on a dead end street. They took to the surrounding hills.

One man, identified by police as Jack W. Twining, 35, of Winston-Salem, took refuge in the home of Glenn S. Hoag but released him unharmed after a five-hour police siege. When police charged the house with tear gas grenades a shotgun blast rang out and the man fell dead — he "blew his head off," one deputy said.

Meanwhile the second man had exchanged shots with Dan Schwartz, 40, of Chicago, who was in a camper truck. Although wounded, the man fled in the vehicle. He was arrested a short distance away and taken to the hospital.

The dead highway patrolmen were Roger D. Gore and Walter C. Frago, both 28, George M. Allyn, 24, and James E. Pence Jr., 25. They left four widows and seven children.

Flags flew at half staff in the state capital of Sacramento, site of California Highway Patrol headquarters. A spokesman said it was the first multiple killing of officers in the patrol's history.

Liberty Island, the island on which the Statue of Liberty stands, was called Bedloe's Island until 1956, when President Eisenhower approved a resolution of Congress changing the name.

Bid Advances To Impose Rail Pact

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Acting in an effort to avert a nationwide railroad shutdown Saturday, the Senate Labor Committee has voted unanimously to impose a new contract on 48,000 railroad shopcraft workers.

In other labor disputes, wildcat trucker strikes spread to several cities, a mediator warned of a possible shutdown at the four major New York daily newspapers by this weekend and some air traffic controllers continued a sick-call work stoppage.

The rails contract would impose on unions and carriers an agreement negotiated in December but rejected by the Small Sheet Metal Workers Union for jurisdictional reasons.

A nationwide railroad shutdown has been threatened by the nation's railroads if any segment of labor began a strike.

The imposition of the railroad contract, which provides a 19 per cent wage increase over two years, was requested by President Nixon last month.

While the Senate committee was initiating action to end the railroad dispute, some of the nation's 425,000 truckers protested a proposed nationwide trucking contract by walking off their jobs in Los Angeles, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Detroit, Oklahoma City, Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio, Minneapolis and some other areas.

The truckers were watching Teamsters union negotiators in Chicago who have rejected the $1.10 an hour wage increase proposed in the nationwide agreement and demanded a contract with a $1.70 wage hike over a similar three years.

Chicago truckers have begun selective strikes against several firms.

Meanwhile, the air traffic controllers sick-call absences continued for the 14th day. Fortyseven of 141 controllers reported sick for the first shift today in Chicago, New York and Cleveland, according to the Federal Aviation Administration.

Leaders of the sick-out were threatened Monday with loss of their jobs by Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe. He said organizers from the Professional Air Traffic Controllers Organization and those who he said have intimidated others to stop work would be fired "through due process."

Up to 40 per cent of scheduled flights were cancelled Monday. Arrival and departure delays ranged up to 90 minutes in some areas.

In the New York newspaper dispute, mediator Theodore W. Kheel warned Monday that publishers and leaders of the 10 unions that significant progress was needed in negotiations to prevent a possible newspaper shutdown this weekend.

Union printers, who have been the most militant group in the negotiations, increased their pressure on the New York Times today by lengthening their chapel meetings from three to four hours each shift. A union spokesman said the action curtailed the amount of advertising copy set.

The unionists have rejected a 16.5 per cent raise over three years which the publishers offered. Nonetheless, they have continued to work for a week without a contract.

In San Diego, Calif., 52,000 bus riders were forced to find alternate means of transportation when the city's 387 bus drivers struck.

The drivers asked their wages of $4.16 an hour be raised 32 cents over two years. The city said such a raise would compel a doubling of bus fares to 60 cents.

Army Doctor Quizzed in Slaying Case

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP) — The Army says a doctor in its elite Green Berets is being "questioned as a suspect" in the slaying of his wife and two young daughters seven weeks ago.

The doctor, Capt. Jeffrey R. MacDonald, 26, of Patchogue, New York, had said that a hippie-like band of a girl and three men had killed the other members of his family in their Army post apartment and wounded him.

Army authorities said Monday they had advised Capt. MacDonald of his right to obtain legal counsel and to remain silent.

An Army spokesman said the captain had not been charged, but was confined to his quarters and could visit mess halls and other facilities only under escort.

He was relieved of his duties in the preventive medicine section at Ft. Bragg, home of the Green Beret Special Forces and the 82nd Airborne Division.

MacDonald has been in the Army since June 20, 1969.

The bodies of MacDonald's wife, Coleen, also 26, and their daughters, Kimberly, 6, and Kristen, 2, were found before dawn Feb. 17 when military police responded to his telephone call for help.

MacDonald, who had been stabbed several times in the chest, lay next to the body of his wife in the master bedroom. The children were found in separate beds in other rooms.

Authorities said the word "Pig" had been scrawled in blood on the headboard of the master bed.

Medical authorities said Mrs. MacDonald and Kimberly had been bludgeoned and stabbed and Kristen had been stabbed.

He said all were dressed as hippies and one of the men wore an Army field jacket.

Annual Oscar Show To Unfurl Tonight

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The U.S. servicemen in combat areas and hospitals since World War I. annual Oscar awards presentation tonight and it's likely one of the most emotional and staid of the year.

Besides a galaxy of Eastwood, Elliott Gould, Bob Hope, James Earl Jones, Myrna Loy, Ali MacGraw, Barbara McNair, Cliff Robertson, Katherine Ross, Barbra Streisand, Jon Voight and Raquel Welch.

Among them is Elizabeth Taylor, wearing the $1.05 million diamond given her by husband Richard Burton, a nominee for best actor honors. Another presenter will be John Wayne, himself nominated for "True Grit."

The two-hour program from the Los Angeles Music Center will be aired over ABC-TV starting at 9 p.m. In the first satellite transmission, the show will be seen live in Brazil and Chile.

The academy estimates at least 200 million persons in 40 countries will see the ceremonies live or by delayed broadcast. The honors have been secretly voted by the 3,100 members of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Leading with nominations in 10 categories, including best picture, was the historical drama "Anne of the Thousand Days." Challenging it for best film of 1969 was "Midnight Cowboy," the seamy life of a Texas drifter and a Manhattan bum.

"Hello, Dolly!," "Butch Cassidy and the Sundown Kid" and "Z" also were nominated for the best picture award.

Favored among best actor nominees, in pre-award speculation, were the durable Wayne and the six-times nominated Burton, up for "Anne of the Thousand Days." Burton has never won.

Opposing them from the youth-oriented sector were Jon Voight and Dustin Hoffman of "Midnight Cowboy." Another contender was Peter O'Toole of "Goodbye, Mr. Chips."

Two second-generation stars were among competitors for best actress honors: Henry Fonda's daughter Jane, of "They Shoot Horses, Don't They?," and Judy Garland's daughter Liza Minnelli, for "The Sterile Cuckoo."

Seeking the same award were Genevieve Bujold, "Anne of the Thousand Days"; Jean Simmons, "The Happy Ending"; and Maggie Smith, "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie."

The academy's board of governors has voted two special awards. One goes to Cary Grant, for many memorable film roles. The other is the Jean Hersholt Humanitarian Award, voted to George Jessel for entertaining

Think you can't afford an Olds? Here are two reasons to think again!

Our own surveys indicate that quite a few people think an Olds costs a lot more than it really does. Result? Many people buy an ordinary car and end up with a lot less car and value for their money.

It's so unnecessary, too, because Oldsmobile has many models that are priced right down with so-called low-priced cars. See your Olds dealer. He'll prove that you're closer to Olds than you think.

Spring is all around us...

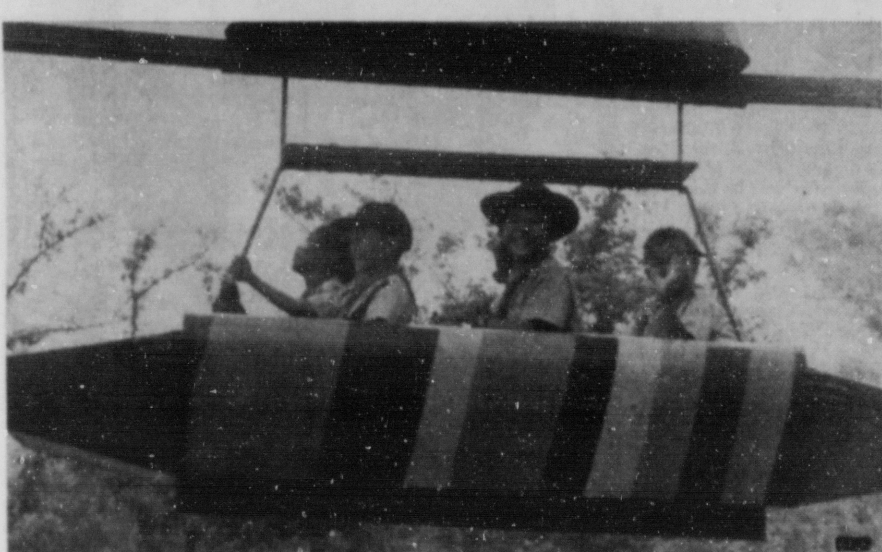

These pictures, taken around Sikeston, depict the current season. Clockwise, from upper left, the flowers are northern magnolia, daffodil (also called jonquil, both members of the narcissus family), pussy willows wearing fringe now instead of fur, tulip, hyacinths, daffodils, baby's breath (also called bridal wreath), forsythia and in the page center, violets.

Many lawns have already been mowed, and the gray skys should be few during the coming sunny months.

GOING FIRST CLASS — Boy Scouts from the Thong Long Troop, Republic of Vietnam, get the big picture of what's happening at the Saigon Zoo from a seat in an overhead tram. A group of 35 scouts were guests of the 2d Battalion (Mech), 2d Infantry of the 1st Infantry Division.

FRAGILE FRIGATES of glass are created by Roy Saxon, a glass weaver seen here at work in the International Bazaar of Freeport, Bahamas. Starting with just a glass rod and a flame, the artisan builds the melting glass into a sailing ship complete with masts and pennants. Saxon, formerly of England, learned his craft from his grandfather, who once wove a glass tablecloth for the emperor of China.

HOMES FOR AMERICANS

DESIGNED FOR SIMPLICITY this Early American home is basically laid out with the living and dining rooms on opposite sides of a central foyer. Off the kitchen-family room combination is a porch meant for outdoor living and eating. So that more than one room could have a fireplace, this one is given one chimney and is placed against an outside wall. There are four bedrooms, four bathrooms and a two car garage. Plan HA634M with 2,234 square feet of living space was designed by Rudolph A. Matern, Master Plan Service Inc., 89 East Jericho Tpke., Mineola, N.Y., 11501.

The Ferris wheel, a familiar amusement device, should be given a capital letter because it was named for its designer, George W. G. Ferris, (1859-1896), an engineer born in Galesburg, Ill. He built the first one for the Columbian Exposition in Chicago in 1893 in an attempt to rival the Eiffel Tower that featured the Paris Exposition in 1889. The World Almanac notes.

If You Were the Judge

Draining Water from Car False Arrest

COWARDLY HERO

By Jack Strauss, L.L.B.

Harry had a kind face, the kind that Rufus was certain he had seen posted in the local post office as a wanted criminal. After Harry drove into his gas station, Rufus let all the water out of his car and called the police. When the police arrived, however, they found no wanted criminal, just Harry chasing Rufus helter-skelter all over the gas station while pleading with him to put the water back into his car. All tucked out, Harry refused to accept Rufus's apology for having mistaken him for a criminal and sued him for false imprisonment.

"That's crazy!" responded Rufus in court. "I didn't imprison Harry. What's more, thinking he was a dangerous desperado, I would have been the last person in the world to have tried to imprison him. I'm a hero in spirit but a coward at heart."

IF YOU WERE THE JUDGE, would you hold cowardly Rufus liable for false imprisonment?

This is how the judge ruled: YES! The judge held that false imprisonment is an illegal detention. By draining the water out of Harry's car, Rufus had illegally prevented Harry from leaving the gas station. And, concluded the judge, while Harry could have left by himself, he was not required to leave without his car. (Based upon a 1930 Kansas Supreme Court decision)

Medallions Arrive at First National

The First National Bank has received a supply of Missouri Sesquicentennial commemorative medallions, to support the celebration of Missouri's 150th year, Donald R. Bohannon, president, announced.

The dollar size medallion will be in two metals, bronze and a fine silver, and are expected to become a collector's items.

Coops Protest Hike

Proposed by SPA

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — A protest has been filed by the Associated Electric Cooperatives of Springfield against a rate increase proposed by the Southwestern Power Administration.

Associated Cooperative buys hydroelectric power from the SPA for distribution in Missouri and Iowa rural areas.

Neil Adams, general manager of the cooperatives association, said the protest has been filed with the Federal Power Commission. Opposed is an SPA proposal for an annual rate increase of $2,647,100.

The SPA asked the commission to approve the rate increase effective March 1. Adams said the FPC was urged by the cooperatives to look into the matter.

In June 1776, the Continental Congress suggested a number of changes in Jefferson's first draft of the Declaration of Independence. The World Almanac says the Congress made 86 changes, eliminating 480 words and retaining 1,337. Jefferson especially objected to Congress' deletion of his indictment of Britain's part in the slave trade.

Handbill Clouds Issue at Dexter

DEXTER — There has been some last-minute confusion over the annexation proposal on today special ballot in Dexter, but it will bring these firms and Mayor Willis Conner said, but no one in the areas to be annexed has raised a legal protest to the plan, he said.

The confusion resulted from a least-minute "handbill" distributed here which was "misleading," Conner said.

Actually, the Mayor said, the areas proposed for annexation are in two general areas of the city, one to the north and one to the northwest. In both areas, business owners and other property owners in the area have approved the plan, most of them actually want to be in the city, and none of them has raised any legal objection although they were given the right to do so, the Mayor said.

The area to the north includes the Dexter Packing Company, annexation plan, and one official of the firm has actually gone on record in the press as saying that there would be no protest.

In general, Conner said, the other areas to be annexed include areas to the west and north of Dexter, and which are, generally, considered to be "a part of Dexter," although they legally are not now a part of the city limits.

These include such facilities as the Medical Arts Building across from the Dexter Hospital, the State Highway Department maintenance buildings, the Dexter Drive-In Theatre, Dale's Appliance and Furniture Company, Alsop Brothers, the FRAM factory, the new large storage warehouse owned by Gordon Hart, Gaines Packing Company, the Sawway LP Gas storage facility, the Gibson Lime Company facilities, the new Westport Apartments, as well as others.

Bringing these areas into the city will certainly not raise any present citizen's tax rate, but it will bring these firms and individual citizens into the city where they will become city tax-paying citizens," Conner said.

"These firms and individuals, for the most part, enjoy city services, and it is only fair that they pay their small share of city taxes," the Mayor emphasized.

"This will not raise any present city taxes in any way," the Mayor emphasized.

"I am confident that the overwhelming majority of people want this area to be annexed, specially since there has been no legal objection from any of the property owners concerned," the Mayor pointed out.

Judges Study
Two-Thirds Vote
Requirement

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A panel of three federal judges are considering a case in which the plaintiffs seek to overthrow the two-thirds majority requirement for passage of school bonds and some school levies in Missouri.

Consolidated in the case are two declaratory judgment suits filed against the Kansas City Board of Education by several well known citizens and education organizations.

The judges have heard arguments and will make a ruling later.

Irving Achtenberg, a plaintiffs attorney, argued that under the two-thirds requirement, a no vote is worth twice as much as a yes vote. He contended that the one-man, one-vote principle should apply.

Achtenberg also said the two-thirds requirement did not guarantee fiscal responsibility.

A school board attorney, David Trowbridge, said the Supreme Court has not extended the one-man, one-vote principle to administrative measures.

Also representing the defense was Brook Bartlett, an assistant state attorney general. He said the two-thirds majority was perhaps the best method for controlling fiscal irresponsibility.

The plaintiffs also ask that school officials be directed to sell $12 million in bonds which received a 36.8 per cent favorable vote July 1, and to levy the $4.30 operating tax which was approved by a 53.3 per cent margin May 28.

Judges on the panel are Floyd R. Gibson of the U.S. Court of Appeals; William H. Becker and John W. Oliver, both of the U.S. District Court.

The black dust, fine as talcum powder, will be tested to determine the effects of weathering.

Testing will be done by Dr. Walter D. Keller, geology professor, and an associate, Dr. Wen Hsing Huang.

"We don't know how it was reduced to fine dust," Keller said. "We hope to know more about that in, say, about six months. You know the moon doesn't have the principal agents of weathering — water and oxygen."

MAVERICK. $1995*...it's a little gas.

*Ford's suggested retail price for the base Maverick model. White sidewall tires are not included, they are $20 extra. You save time and money. Simple to repair. The Maverick Owner's Manual has 24 pages of instruction for routine maintenance jobs you can do yourself. Simple to own. Save right from the start—the Simple Machine is your Ford Dealer's lowest priced car.

The new Maverick Grabber has all the same features as our Simple Machine but we've added an extra sporty flare to it. Here's what Grabber gives you: 1 Racy bodyside tape stripes, choice of five hot Grabber colors, 14-in. whitewall tires and wheel trim rings. High excitement, yes. High price, no. 2 200 CID Six and 3-speed fully synchronized manual transmission. Lots of pep, but not hard to tune. Grabber adds to your fun, not your mechanical problems. 3 Dual racing mirrors. But no high "muscle car" insurance rates. 4 Three-spoke woodgrained steering wheel just like the racing cars. But no hard, stiff ride. Grabber's sprung for comfort, not for the track. 5 Black-painted hood and grille. Grabber puts on a great front, but maintenance costs are low. Service is fast and simple. With lots you can do yourself. 6 Rear deck-lid spoiler. Even an economy car can dream, can't it?
